

Aldrich, Robert d. 1-17-2002

Des Moines
Register
1-23-2002

ROBERT ALDRICH
Davis City

Robert L. Aldrich, 58, of Davis City died of congestive heart failure Thursday at home. The body was cremated, and memorial services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Cambridge Faith Baptist Church in Cambridge.

Mr. Aldrich was born in White Oak and had lived in Newton from 1965 to 1987. He moved to Davis City two years ago. He was a retired assemblyman with Maytag Corp., a Navy veteran of the Vietnam War and a member of American Legion and United Auto Workers.

He is survived by his wife, Anne; three sons, Tony of Kellogg and Scott and Sean, both of Newton; two stepdaughters, Becky Koth of Strawberry Point and Karen Besler of Manchester; a stepson, Tome Besler of Manchester; four sisters, Bonnie Dulaney and Susan Ceretti, both of Nevada, Ia., Karen Harrelson of Cambridge and Robin Blue of Marshalltown; four brothers, Steve of Newton, Jim of Radcliffe, Kevin "Tony" of Story City and Tom of Ames; and nine grandchildren.

Slade-O'Donnell Funeral Home in Leon is handling arrangements.

Robert L. Aldrich, 58
April 2, 1943 - Jan. 17, 2002

Robert L. "Bob" Aldrich, 58, of Pleasanton, died Thursday, January 17, at his home in rural Decatur County. The body was cremated.

Services are set for 11:00 a.m., Saturday, January 26, at Faith Baptist Church in Cambridge. Rev. John Hartog will officiate.

American Legion Post #0037 of Ames, with Commander Virgil Craven, will provide military honors following the service.

Obituary

Robert Aldrich was born in White Oak on April 2, 1943, to Charles Irvin and June Evelyn (Talbert) Aldrich. He was raised in Cambridge and served his country in the U.S. Navy on ships in the Pacific during the Vietnam War. He worked for Maytag in Newton for 22 years in assembly. In 1987, he left

Newton, working various jobs in different locations. He married Anne Elisabeth Ryan. They moved to Pleasanton in 1999, where Bob farmed. He liked farming, working with the animals, and being outside. He enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a member of the American Legion and the U.A.W.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Elaine Charlet; and two brothers, Christopher Aldrich and Charles Aldrich, who died as an infant.

Survivors include his wife, Anne Aldrich of Pleasanton; three sons, Tony Aldrich and wife Brenda of Kellogg, Scott Aldrich and Sean Aldrich, both of Newton; three stepchildren,

Tri County
Times
1-24-2002

Becky Koth and husband Brian of Strawberry Point, Karen Besler, and Tom Besler and wife Elaine, all of Manchester; nine grandchildren; eight brothers and sisters, Steve Aldrich and wife Marilyn of Newton, Susan Ceretti of Nevada, Jim Aldrich and wife Christine of Radcliffe, Karen Harrelson and husband Raymond of Cambridge, Bonnie Dulaney and husband Wayne of Nevada, Kevin "Tony" Aldrich and wife Dorothy of Story City, Tom Aldrich and wife Bernice of Ames, and Robin Blue of Marshalltown; and other relatives and friends.

Slade-O'Donnell Funeral Home in Leon handled the arrangements.