

Baldwin, Richard D. d. 3-17-2008

Des Moines
Register
3-21-2008

RICHARD D. BALDWIN

Baxter

Richard D. "Gramps" Baldwin, 90 of Baxter, died Monday, March 17, 2008.

Funeral services are at 10:30 a.m., today at the Wallace Family Funeral Home in Newton.

Memorials in Dick's name may be left at the funeral home.

Dick was born February 1, 1918 in Mingo. He married Sally Phipps on July 28, 1939, in Farrar. They had five children. Dick married Cynthia S. "Cindy" Marshall on April 10, 1975 in Des Moines.

Dick farmed from 1953 to 1969 and he drove truck for McWhirter Implement from 1967 until retiring in 1993. He has lived in Baxter since 1974 and had lived in the Collins-Maxwell area from 1953 to 1974.

Dick was a member of the Mingo United Methodist Church. He enjoyed his family, home, fishing, hunting, camping, auctions, NASCAR, truck and tractor pulls.

Survivors include his wife, Cindy of Baxter, three sons, Rich (Lavonne) Baldwin of Huxley, John (Kim) Baldwin of Crittenden, Kentucky, and Ed (Laurie) Baldwin of Gibsonville, North Carolina; daughter, Susanne (Howard) Elson of Clive; his eight grandchildren, Glenda (Clark) Lathrum, Paula (Mike Gavin) Roshek, Todd Baldwin, Mindy Baldwin, Stuart (DeAnn) Baldwin, Chad Baldwin, Clay Cheek, and Ryan Cheek; twelve great-grandchildren, Veronica, Morgen, Casey, Shae, Lindsay, Aaron, Andrew, Nicholas, Jordan, Kylie, Ashley, and Curtis; and his great-great-granddaughter, Cloe.

Dick was preceded in death by his parents, son, Daniel Baldwin; great-grandson, Tyler Chavie; a brother, three sisters, and two nephews.

Wallace Family
FUNERAL HOME