

April 22, 2004

Glen A. Ball

April 14, 1921 to April 3, 2004

Glen A. Ball, 82, of Eldora and formerly of rural Maxwell and McCallsburg, died at his home in Eldora on Saturday, April 3, 2004. Funeral services were held Thursday, April 8 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Eldora.

Glen was born on April 14, 1921 to Alfred and Crescy Ball. He was raised in rural Story County and graduated from McCallsburg High School. He attended Iowa State College in Ames before deciding to enter into farming, which he did for over 50 years.

Glen is survived by his wife, Betty; two daughters, Kathy (and Roger) Struck and Susanne Sly of Eldora; two sons, Glen (and Kathy) Ball Jr. of Yuma, Ariz. and Charles (and Kathy) Ball of Dallas Center; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; three sisters, Ruth Binkard of Britt, Anna Laura Carlson of Prescott, Ariz., and Doris Christian of rural Roland; a brother, Roger Ball of Midland, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred and Crescy Ball; one granddaughter, Patty; and three brothers, Edwin, John and Dale.

©Nevada Journal 2004