

Banks, Mrs. ASA

Wed. April 8, 1937

DEATH OF MRS. ASA BANKS

Mrs. Asa Banks, 67, longtime resident of the Iowa Center neighborhood died Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Fry, south of Nevada.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 at the Iowa Center church, after which the body was laid to rest in the Nevada cemetery by the side of her husband, who died in 1925.

The surviving children are Marlon Banks, of Cedar Rapids, Wilbur Banks, of Cambridge, Lawrence Banks, of Nevada, Roy Banks, of Maxwell, Mrs. George Fry, of near Nevada, Mrs. James McBride, of Des Moines, Mrs. Everett Godby, of Iowa Center, Harry Banks, of Collins, Mrs. Fred Kahler, of Iowa Center, and Fred Banks, of Clear Lake. One son, Forrest Banks, died at the age of four years. There are also two step-children, Everett Banks of Cambridge, Minn., and Mrs. Florence Bottist, of Nevada.

One son, Harry, is employed by Ray Tiffany on his farm.

Collins

Gazette

1937