Sister Walker a kind neighbor and true friend;
Who loving us all unto the very end.

But loved her Saviour the very best of all,
She stood in the faith till at last He did call.

He called her one morn to her home over there,
Ready to claim one of the mansions prepared.

Though going by the grave or caught up in the air
We want to meet her, as there's no parting there.

Yes, we all want to stand steadfast in the faith,
For what so ever is not of faith is sin.

We want by God's grace to make heaven our home
When our Master calls be ready to go in.
