MRS. ROY DAVIS PASSED AWAY LAST SATURDAY

The community was saddened Saturday afternoon when word was received from Lutheran hospital, Des Moines, of the death of Mrs. Roy Davis, which occurred about 1 o'clock that afternoon.

The heartfelt sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved family.

Obituary

Mable Ann Davis, daughter of Jane and Albert Beach, was born January 21, 1891, in Hardin county, near Hubbard, Ia., and passed away September 2, 1933, in the Lutheran hospital, Des Moines, Ia.

At the age of two years her parents moved to the farm which was her home. Here, she grew to womanhood. She was united in marriage to Roy Davis in a double wedding with her only sister, Mrs. Verne Randall on Feb. 11, 1914.

One daughter, Jean Frances, was born to the union. Other surviving members of her family are her husband; her mother, Mrs. Jane Beach; one sister, Mrs. Verne Randall, besides other friends and relatives.

Mrs. Davis united with the Presbyterian church, Maxwell, Ia., Oct. 13, 1916. She was one who loved her home and made of it a place of wholesome living and enjoyable contentment.

In the home circle the sorrowing husband will miss his kind and loving companion, and ~~the daughter, the watchful and tender care of her patient, kind and affectionate mother.~~

Relatives and friends from a distance who attended the services were: Relatives--Mrs. Delbert Beach and daughter Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beach of Zeoring; Mr. and Mrs. John Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Will Mathews, Mrs. Harriet Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Matters.
