

Lyda B. Ball

July 19, 1903, to Oct. 20, 2002

Lyda B. Ball, July 19, 1903, to Oct. 20, 2002

Lyda B. Ball, 99, of Independence, died Oct. 20 at Peoples Long Term Care in Independence following a short illness.

She was born July 19, 1903, in Cambridge to David S. and Alena Jacobson Beekley. She married William Franklin Ball on April 26, 1965, in Nevada. Before retiring, she had been a clerk at the Ben Franklin Store in Nevada. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Nevada and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include a step-son, Russell (and Mary) Ball of Sterling, Alaska; a step-daughter, Ella (and Malcolm) Risk of Independence; and five step-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, six sisters, one brother and her husband, William, in 1987.

The body was cremated. Committal services will be held at a later date in the Nevada Cemetery. White Funeral Home, Independence, is handling arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2002

Ball, Lyda B. (Mrs. Wm. F) d. 10-20-2002

Tri County
Times

10-24-2002

Lyda B. Ball
July 19, 1903-Oct. 20, 2002

Lyda B. Ball, 99, of Independence, died on Sunday, Oct. 20, at Peoples Long Term Care in Independence following a short illness. Her body was cremated and committal services will be held at a later date in the Nevada Cemetery.

Obituary

Lyda B. Ball was born on July 19, 1903, in Cambridge to David S. and Alena Jacobson Beekley. She married William Franklin Ball on April 26, 1965, in Nevada. Before retiring, she was a clerk at Ben Franklin. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Nevada and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include a stepson, Russell (and Mary) Ball of Sterling, Alaska; a stepdaughter, Ella (and Malcolm) Risk of Independence; five step grandchildren; three nephews, and two nieces.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, six sisters and one brother.

White Funeral Home of Independence was in charge of arrangements.