Joe Berry died at the home of his brother Hoyt, Tuesday November 19. He was born at Clyde 18 years ago and spent his life on the farm in this vicinity. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Berry, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Wiley and Mrs. Gladys Bishop of Baxter and one brother Hoyt to mourn his sad and early demise. Joe was a bright boy and a natural stockman with a bright future before him in this line. Burial was made in the family lot at Ashton Thursday morning beside his brother and sister, Curtis and Cleo.
