Funeral services for the late Mrs. Hattie Cooper were held Monday afternoon, Sept. 12, in the Collins Church of Christ, with the Rev. C. E. Lookingbill of Nevada in charge, assisted by the Rev. Henry Esch, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Cooper, 85, passed away last Saturday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Edith Anderson, in Marshalltown, with whom she had made her home for several months.

Music for the services was provided by Mrs. K. W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Ivan Mullihan, Bradford Stevens and T. E. Huntrods, with Mrs. C. R. Stone, pianist.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. S. T. Hyatt, Mrs. Nellie Andrews and Mrs. Mabel Tripp.

Casket bearers were Everett, Robert, Donald and Rudy Fry, Willis and Clark Cook, all grandsons of deceased.

Interment was in Collins Evergreen Hill cemetery.

Hattie Black Cooper was born April 12, 1864, the daughter of Sarah Wynn and James Black. On March 4, 1883, she was united in marriage to Charles Anthony Cooper, and to this union six children were born, three children and the husband preceding her in death.

Mrs. Cooper had the privilege of enjoying five generations of her family—10 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren and 11 great great grandchildren.

She departed this life Sept. 10, 1949, at the age of 85 years, four months and 28 days.

Immediate survivors include her two daughters, Mrs. Edith Anderson of Marshalltown and Mrs. James Sager of Collins; one son, Leo Cooper of the Colo community, and one sister, Mrs. R. E. Marsh of Charles City.

She will be greatly missed by all her relatives and by a host of friends.
