

Black, Larry

d. 7-06-1999

LARRY BLACK

Cambridge

Larry Dean Black, 56, of Cambridge died of a blood disease Tuesday at Methodist Hospital in Rochester, Minn. Services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at First United Methodist Church in Ames, of which he was a member. Burial will be at Center Grove Cemetery near Cambridge.

Mr. Black was born in Ames and had lived in Cambridge many years. He was president of Clyde Black and Son Seed Farms near Cambridge and a member of West Story Fire Department of Kelley, Story County Soil and Conservation Board and Collins-Maxwell School Board. He was president of Story County Cattleman's Association, treasurer of Maxwell Area Community Center and state president and national director of Gelbvieh Breeders Association.

He is survived by his wife, Pat; two sons, Bruce Trea-Black of Story City and Steve of Ames; two daughters, Deanna Black of Cleveland and Trisha Black-Romig of Mason City; two brothers, Duane of Ames and Eugene of Huxley; and a sister, Nancy Black-Mueller of Kansas City, Mo.

Des Moines

Register

7-10-1999

Friends may call from 3 to 8:30 p.m. Sunday at Maxwell Area Community Center, where the family will be present from 4 to 8:30 p.m. and where a prayer service will be held at 8 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Maxwell Area Community Center. Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell is handling arrangements.

Larry Dean Black

MARCH 27, 1943-JULY 6, 1999

Larry Dean Black, 56, of Cambridge, died of Amyloidosis, a rare blood disease, Tuesday at Methodist Hospital in Rochester, Minn. Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Monday at First United Methodist Church in Ames with the Rev. Larry LaVelle officiating. Burial will be in the Center Grove Cemetery near Cambridge.

Larry Dean Black was born in Ames, the son of Julius and Helen (Kingsbury) Black. He graduated from Ames High School in 1961 and Simpson College in 1965. On Dec. 27, 1964, he married Patricia "Pat" Breeden in Wilmette, Ill. He was president of Clyde Black & Son Seed Farms near Cambridge. He was a member of First United Methodist Church, and he was a constituent of Maxwell United Methodist Church, West Story Fire Department of Kelly, the Story County Soil and Conservation Board and the Collins/Maxwell School Board. He was also state president of the Gelbvieh Breeders Association of Iowa, president of the Story County Cattleman's Association and the national director of the American Gelbvieh Association. He was the current treasurer of the Maxwell Area Community Center. He enjoyed his work, basketball, raising elk and bison and collecting old tractors.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Bruce Trea-Black of Story City, and Steve Black of Ames; two daughters, Deanna Black of Cleveland, Ohio, and Trisha Black-Romig of Mason City; two brothers, Duane Black of Ames, and Eugene Black of Huxley; and a sister, Nancy Black-Mueller of Kansas City, Mo.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Karen Black.

Visitation will be 3 to 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the Maxwell Area Community Center, with the family present after 4 p.m. A prayer service will be held at the center at 8 p.m.

Memorials may be made to the Maxwell Area Community Center.

The Bacon Funeral Home of Maxwell is handling arrangements.

Ames
Tribune

7-09-1999