

d. Mar. 7, 1945

Geo. J. Boitnott Former Maxwell Postmaster Dead

1945 ———

Collins, Mar. 9—George J. Boitnott, 74, postmaster at Maxwell for a number of years, died at the University hospital in Iowa City Wednesday night at ten o'clock.

Mr. Boitnott was born in Maxwell and grew up there. For two years he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Lint, south of Collins, and also made his home in Des Moines for a while.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hugh Fertig and Mrs. Hugh Lint of near Collins, a son, Monte J. Boitnott somewhere in Italy, one sister, Miss Ida Boitnott of Waterloo, and one brother, Frank, in the state of Washington.

Funeral services will be held at the Maxwell Church of Christ Saturday at 2:30 with burial in the Maxwell cemetery.