

BOITNOTT Earl H.

March 22, 1945

Earl H. Boitnott Dies Enroute to ¹⁹⁴⁵ University Hospital

Maxwell, Mar. 23—Earl H. Boitnott, 50, of Maxwell, died Thursday morning at Marengo, while enroute to the University hospital in Iowa City.

Mr. Boitnott, who has lived for many years in the Cambridge and Maxwell communities, had been in ill health for the past year.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Sadie Boitnott of Maxwell, one sister, Mrs. Edith Kaltenheuser of Ames, five brothers, Jay and Cecil of Roanoke, Virginia; William and Edgar of Des Moines and George of Newton.

Funeral services will be held in the Cooper Funeral Chapel in Maxwell at 2:30 Saturday afternoon with burial in the Brethren cemetery south of Maxwell.

Nevada Evening Journal