Infant Smothered In Bed

Five-month-old Glen Everett Boozell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Boozell, was found smothered in bed with his mother Monday morning.

The child's parents, whose home has been in Des Moines, have been staying with Mr. Boozell's father, Frank Boozell, a quarter-mile west of Collins.

The baby had been dead about three hours when discovered dead by his mother at 7 a. m., Dr. S. B. Goodenow of Colo announced.

Howard Mills, Nevada justice of the peace, and Sheriff Ivan Shalley conducted a routine investigation in the death. Mills acted in the absence of the county coroner.

Graveside services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Henry Esch in charge.
