

Borts, Fred

d. June 1955

FUNERAL MONDAY FOR FRED BORTS

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Mingo Methodist church for Fred C. Borts, 70, of Mingo, father of Wes Borts of Collins.

Mr Borts, a retired farmer, suffered a heart attack at home Friday afternoon soon after returning from delivering a truckload of livestock to Des Moines.

Officiating clergymen were Rev. Ralph Erts and Rev. Arthur Caulkins.

Music was furnished by Mrs Dale Harter, organist, and a quartet composed of Mrs Howard Southern, Mrs Louis Neal, Otha Hulse and Eldon Geisler. The songs were "Tell Mother I'll Be There" and "Ivory Palaces."

The floral offerings were cared for by Mrs Dennis Cummings, Mrs Ellsworth Spensley and Mrs Hale Nickell.

Pallbearers were Russell Southern, J. L. Hartley, R. E. Russell, Ellsworth Spensley, Neil Steiniche and Dennis Cummings. Interment was in Ashton Chapel cemetery.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs Harold Griggs and Mrs Alta DeVilbiss of Sacramento, Cal., and three sons, Wesley of Collins and Merle and Forest of Mingo. His wife preceded him in death.

Collins

Gazette
1955