

Hattery, Mrs. Margaret

MRS. MARGARET HATTERY

Mrs. Margaret Hattery, 76, died at the family homestead north of Collins, Friday night, following a short illness.

She was born March 16, 1861, near Bloomfield, Ind., a daughter of Christian and Margaret Brawnd. There she grew to womanhood and was married October 30, 1880, to John J. Hattery. In March 1886 they purchased and moved onto the farm north of Collins which has since been the family home, where their ten children were raised, and where Mr. Hattery died January 10, 1931.

One daughter, Mrs. Grace Landers, died November 9, 1924, leaving a baby daughter, who was also raised in the Hattery home.

Mrs. Hattery became a member of the Methodist church in Indiana and always retained her membership in the same church. She was also a long time and active member of the Collins, O.E.S.

She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. J. R. Butler of Ames, Mrs. Edward Berry of Joyce, Mrs. A. J. Haas of Union, Mrs. C. R. Bellamy of Woodward and Carrie of Collins; sons Lowell Hattery of Mingo, John Hattery of Des Moines, and Charles and Ralph Hattery of Collins

Ames Milepost

The community was again saddened by the death of a pioneer in the passing of Mrs. Margaret Hattery Friday night July 30, at 11 o'clock at her home north of Collins.

Mrs. Hattery, widow of the late J. J. Hattery, had lived in this community for more than 50 years and was universally loved and respected. Her last illness extended over several months, and her death, while deeply mourned by family and friends, can only be considered as a blessed relief from suffering.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church of Linton, Ind., as well as a member of the Collins Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:00 from the Collins Methodist church, in charge of the Rev. Ida I. Roberts, pastor.

A double quartet, composed of Mrs. G. C. Fish, Mrs. Curtis Marsh, Miss Calla Wood, Mrs. O. H. Gearhart, E. S. Stuntz, Chas. Cooper, J. R. Witmer and J. M. Smith, sang "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Have Thine Own Way." Mrs. Hugh Fertig was the pianist.

The profusion of beautiful flowers were cared for by Miss Minnie Marsh, Mrs. Ora Hanson and Mrs. O. N. Serbein. Ushers at the services were H. R. Sokol and O. N. Serbein.

Interment was in Collins Evergreen cemetery by the side of her husband and daughter who had preceded her in death.

Pallbearers were Scott Marsh, Harve Southern, Sam Hyatt, Elsworth Campbell, Frank Holland and Noah Hyatt.

The services were largely attended by friends and acquaintances of the members of the family, many coming from a distance. Sixteen members of the State Highway Patrol attended in a body, as well as other associates of Chief John Hattery from the statehouse in Des Moines, and former associates from the courthouse at Nevada.

Margaret Brawand, daughter of Christian and Margaret Brawand, was born March 16, 1861, near Bloomfield, Indiana, and passed away at her home north of Collins, July 30, 1937, at the age of 76 years, 4 months and 14 days.

On October 30, 1880, she was married to John J. Hattery at Bloomfield, Ind. They made their home near Linton until 1886, when they came to Iowa and located on their farm near Collins.

She leaves to mourn her loss, nine children: Mrs. Eva Butler of Ames, Mrs. Rella Berry of Joyce, Mrs. Mattie Haas of Union, John R. of Des Moines, Mrs. Margaret Bilney of Woodward, Lowell of Mingo, Carrie, Ralph and Charles of Collins.

Her husband, an infant son and a daughter, Grace Landers, preceded her in death.

One granddaughter, Betty Jean Landers, now of Woodward, made her home with her grandmother for 12 years. She also leaves 18 other grandchildren.

One sister, Mrs. Celia Ringo, of Battle Creek, Mich., and two brothers, Peter of Linton, Ind. and Hammond of Terre Haute, Ind., also survive their sister.

d. 7-30-1937

Collins
Gazette

8-5-1937