Virginia was born in Clinton, Iowa, on March 23, 1914 to Walter and Christiane (Volckmann) Briggs. She was raised in Clinton and graduated in 1932 from Lyons High School. In 1938, she was married to Albert E. Jaeger of Morrison, Illinois. They resided in Davenport for 31 years where Virginia was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Professional Women's International Pilot Club, St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary, Izaak Walton League of America, and several other community organizations where she held various offices. She was the office manager for Employers Mutual Insurance Claims Office before retiring. In the early years of their marriage, she and her husband were members of the Promenaders Dance Club performing weekly on WOC-TV in Davenport. In 1978, Virginia and her husband moved to Marshalltown to join their daughter and her family. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Marshalltown, MMSC Hospital Auxiliary Volunteer, and was actively involved in the Ronald Reagan election campaigns. Virginia and her husband had one daughter, Dr. Nancy L. Wilson who is married to Dr. David Wilson of Marshalltown. She has three grandchildren, Jeffrey Wilson of Iowa City, Lindsey Wilson of West Des Moines, and Angela Eilders (James), and two great-grandchildren, Katelyn Eilders and Nicholas Eilders all of Marshalltown. She is survived by her daughter and family, three sisters Gerry (Richard) Scanlon, Margie (Glen) Timmons, and Barbara (Harry) Echelbarger all of Clinton, and several nieces and nephews. Virginia was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two sisters Valeria (Mel) Harper of Davenport and Eleanor (John) Dale of Clinton, two nieces and a nephew.
