

Brower, Jennie Hattan

d. 2-17-1931

(The following was sent the Gazette by F. C. Brower of Olds, Alta. Canada, who states that a number of local people were acquainted with the deceased in the '80s. Mr. Brower also says, "I was employed with the "Collins Clipper" when Wm. Burney was editor.)

BROWER—Jennie Hattan was born at Kingston, Ont., on September 19, 1841, and passed away at the home of her eldest son, W. W. Brower, Sheffield, Iowa, on February 17th, in her 90th year. On September 9th, 1862, she was married to Isaac Brock Brower at Kingston, Ont., where they made their home for a few years, later going to Iowa, where they reared their family of six sons and one daughter. In 1902, having decided to again make their home in Canada, they chose Alberta, settling on a homestead and purchasing railroad land south of Harmattan. With a desire to see old friends and relatives, the aged couple, in June 1929, left for a visit at their son's home in Iowa, where, despite tender care and loving attention, Mrs. Brower passed away quietly. Having been an earnest church and S. S. worker throughout her life, deceased was ready and content to meet her maker.

The funeral was held at Sheffield, Ia., on Feb. 19, where interment also took place.

Of the immediate family, deceased leaves to mourn her loss her aged husband; a daughter, Mrs. G. L. Reid, Elgin, Ill.; Will W., Sheffield, Ia.; Earl C., Williams Lake, B. C.; Archie B., Calgary; Erwin S., Harmattan; Frank C., Olds. The first-born, James H. passed away in 1911.
