

Mrs. G. Buck Dies Nov. 10

Nov 21, 1974

COLLINS — Funeral services for Mrs. Granger (Avilda) Buck, former Rhodes High School home economics teacher who died Sunday, Nov. 17 at Marshalltown Area Community Hospital West, were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Collins Church of Christ.

The Rev. William Andre officiated, and burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Collins. Pallbearers were Phillip Buck, John Buck, Donald Buck, Mark Atwood, Bob Oswalt and Max Buck.

Mrs. Buck, 73, had lived in Collins since 1942 and in Rhodes for 18 years before then. She was a 50-year member of the Order of Eastern Star at Collins and belonged to its Past Matrons Club and to the Collins United Methodist Church and its women's society.

She was born at Marengo Apr. 14, 1901, daughter of William H. and Cora Marvin Wood, and was a graduate of Blairstown High School and Coe College, Cedar Rapids. She was married Feb. 3, 1926, at Blairstown.

Surviving are the widower, two daughters, Mrs. John (Barbara) Kingman and Mrs. Gene (Dorothy) Atwood, both of Collins; one son, Christopher Buck, Minnetonka, Minn.; 13 grandchildren and a great grandchild. A son preceded her in death.

The Boyd-Nickell Funeral Home in Baxter was in charge of arrangements.
