HENRY BULLOCK DEAD AT COLLINS

LONG TIME RESIDENT OF THE
STATE CENTER NEIGHBOR-
HOOD DIED

Special to the Journal.

Collins, March 5.—Henry Bullock, 77, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. William Wilkening of northeast of Collins Saturday morning.

The funeral services will be held at the Catholic church in State Center Tuesday morning at 10:00 and interment will be in the Catholic cemetery there.

Mr. Bullock had been making his home with the daughter since the death of his wife January 12, 1931.

The deceased was a native of New Sandwich, Ill., where he was born May 7, 1854. He came out to Iowa with his parents when he was yet a boy and they settled on a farm near State Center.

He was united in marriage to Mary Ann Dolan, February 21, 1882 and six children were born to them. Two of the daughters, Mrs. Agnes Swinbank and Mrs. Emma Smith preceded the parents in death.

The four children left to mourn the passing of the parents are Mrs. Anna Hart of State Center, Mrs. Lyda Swinbank of near Collins, Thomas Bullock of near Colo and Mrs. Sadie Wilkening of near Collins.

He also leaves two brothers, Franklin Bullock of North Dakota and William Bullock of State Center.

With the exception of about two years spent in Wyoming, Mr. Bullock had always had his home in the State Center neighborhood, since coming to Iowa with his parents as a boy.

Henry Bullock died Saturday near Collins Resident of community many years dies at home of daughter March 10, 1932 State Center Enterprise

Henry Bullock, a pioneer resident of this community, died at 3 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sadie Wilkening, near Collins, of cerebral hemorrhage. He had been in failing health for about a year.

Mr. Bullock claimed the distinction of being a resident of this community longer than any other living citizen. He was born May 7, 1854, in LaSalle county, Illinois and the family moved to this county in October, 1855, settling on a farm near Rhodes, where they lived until April 18, 1866, when they moved to State Center. His father, Rutson (sic) Bullock, operated the first hotel in State Center.

On February 21, 1882, Henry Bullock was married to Mary Agnes Dolan of Colo, at State Center. They lived in Wyoming for two years and returned to State Center in 1884. Mr. Bullock remained a resident of this city until the death of his wife, which occurred Jan. 12, 1931. Since then he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Wilkening.

Four children survive Mr. Bullock. In addition to Mrs. Wilkening they are Mrs. Albert Hart, of this city, Mrs. John Swinbank of Collins and Thomas Bullock of near Colo. He is also survived by ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning from St. Joseph's Catholic church at State Center. The services were in charge of Rev. J.J. Buzynski of this city and Rev. F.J. Frien of St. Anthony. The pallbearers were Hugh Kielly, Pat Pekin, J.L. McMahon, M.E. Hilleman, and C.R. Linn of State Center and Will Sinnott of Collins. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. C.R. Linn, Mrs. Ed. Smith, Miss Jennie Swinbank and Miss Margaret Deleware. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Attending from a distance were relatives and friends from Marshalltown, Collins, Maxwell and Colo.
