

Bunning, Lois Hennick

d. 12-28-1999

Lois Bunning

MAY 16, 1936 - DEC. 28, 1999

Lois Bunning, 63, of Maxwell, died at her home on Tuesday from a respiratory ailment. Memorial services are at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Maxwell Christian Church, with the Rev. Tom Lee officiating. Private burial will be in the Maxwell Cemetery.

Lois Bunning was born May 16, 1936, in Maxwell, the daughter of Richard Ray and Nadine (Longcor) Hennick. She attended school in Maxwell. She was a production worker for a chemical manufacturing company in Des Moines for 20 years and loved the outdoors and her gardens. She was a member of the Maxwell Christian Church.

She is survived by her mother; one son, Bobbi Bunning of Maxwell; one daughter, Mildred Spencer of Des Moines; one brother, Richard Hennick of Orange City, Fla., and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her father; two brothers and two sisters.

The Bacon Funeral Home in Maxwell is in charge of arrangements.

Ames
Tribune
12-30-99