Mrs. Wendel, Rhodes, Dies; Rites Are Set

Rhodes — (Special) — Mrs. Grace Wendel died at 5:30 a.m. Friday at Evangelical Deaconess hospital in Marshalltown where she had been a patient since Tuesday night. She suffered a stroke and never regained consciousness.

She was born March 12, 1886, in Nebraska, the daughter of W. D. and Ida Gregiore Burgovne. The family moved to Welton when she was a child and later to Rhodes.

Husband Is Dead

Her husband, Ross R. Wendel, died about 25 years ago.

Mrs. Wendel was active in community affairs and at the time of her death was township clerk and republican committee woman. She was a member of the Methodist church, Crystal chapter, No. 11, O.E.S., Rhodes Rebekah lodge No. 363, the M.W. club, Eden Cemetery Aid society and was president of the S.S.S. club.

Survivors Are Named

Survivors include an aunt, Mrs. Bertha Martin of Berthoud, Col., and a cousin, Clarence Gregiore of Delmar.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Methodist church in charge of the Rev. E. H. Shuey. Burial will be in Eden cemetery.

Grace Wendel Estate Valued At $21,634

Value of the estate of Grace E. Wendel, who died at 64 on Sept. 15, was set at $21,634.84 in an inventory filed in Marshall county probate court Saturday by Al Sanderman of Melbourne, executor.

Twelve beneficiaries were named in the Rhodes woman's will, among them Harlan Wendel of Rhodes, Clarence Gregiore of Delmar and the Rhodes consolidated school. Others reside outside the state.
