Mrs. Wendel, Rhodes, Dies; Rites Are Set

Rhodes — (Special) — Mrs. Grace Wendel died at 5:30 a.m. Friday at Evangelical Deaconess hospital in Marshalltown where she had been a patient since Tuesday night. She suffered a stroke and never regained consciousness.

She was born March 12, 1886, in Nebraska, the daughter of W. D. and Ida Gregoire Burgoyne. The family moved to Welton when she was a child and later to Rhodes.

Husband Is Dead

Her husband, Ross R. Wendel, died about 25 years ago.

Mrs. Wendel was active in community affairs and at the time of her death was township clerk and republican committee woman. She was a member of the Methodist church, Crystal chapter No. 11, O.E.S.; Rhodes Rebekah lodge No. 363, the M.W. club, Eden Cemetery Aid society and was president of the S.S.S. club.

Survivors Are Named

Survivors include an aunt, Mrs. B. R. Martin of Berthoud, Colo., and a cousin, Clarence Gregoire of Delmar.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Methodist church in charge of the Rev. E. H. Shuey. Burial will be in Eden cemetery.