Sudden Death of Brother of Collins Woman Friday

1946 —

Collins, June 19 — Mrs. Maude Harrison received word Friday of the death of her brother, F. M. Burnham, retired railroad man, who made his home in Des Moines.

His death was sudden and unexpected as he had been in very good health, having spent Memorial Day with his sister at Collins. Mr. Burnham is survived by his wife and two daughters, all living in Des Moines, and two sisters, Mrs. Harrison of Collins and Mrs. Mae Ford of Mesa, Ariz.

Funeral services were held in Des Moines Monday.
