Mrs. Butler Dead At 79; Services Set

Mrs. C. E. Butler, 79, 213 Young St., a former Melbourne resident, died at 5:15 a.m. Thursday at Evangelical Hospital where she had been a patient for two days. Death was of a heart condition.

She was born Ada Jane, daughter of Thomas and Ella Easton, June 27, 1885 near Welton and was reared in Clinton County, coming with her parents to Marshall County in 1902.

SHE WAS married Dec. 27, 1905, to Charles Edmin Butler and in 1906 they moved to a farm in Clinton County where they remained for a year. They returned to Melbourne and farmed until 1960 when they retired and moved to Marshalltown.

Survivors include the widower and two children, Dale of Waukon and Mrs. Samuel (Leila) Severence of Marshalltown, two grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Henry Butler of Marshalltown and Mrs. Grace Mitchell of Barrington, Ill., and Harry Easton of St. Petersburg, Fla.

MRS. BUTLER was a member of the Melbourne Methodist Church and a life member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and a 50-year member of the Melbourne Order of the Eastern Star.

Services will be at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at the Melbourne Methodist Church with the Rev. Scott Hall in charge. Burial will be in Melbourne Cemetery.

Memorials have been requested by the family. Friends may call at Ryan-Davis Funeral Home in Melbourne until 11 a.m. Saturday.
