

OBITUARIES

Betty R. Juel, 76

Betty R. Juel, 76, Melbourne, died Saturday, Feb. 9, 2002 at her home under the care of her family and Iowa River Hospice.

Memorial Services were held Tuesday, Feb. 12 at New Horizon United Methodist Church with Reverend Lowell Hoyle officiating. No visitation was planned. Private interment was at the Melbourne Cemetery. Memorials may be directed to the Betty R. Juel Memorial Fund. The Ryan-Davis Funeral Home of Melbourne was in charge of arrangements.

Betty was born July 7, 1925 in Brainerd, MN the daughter of William Louis and Fannie Esperence (Squire) Buttjer. The family moved to the Allison and Aredale, Iowa area where Betty grew up, graduating from the Allison High School. She then attended and graduated from the Gates Business College. She was married to Dale C. Juel on December 6, 1946 in Waverly, Iowa. Betty and Dale owned and operated Juel Truck Line, where Betty was still the bookkeeper. She was a member of the New Horizons United Methodist Church in Melbourne.

She is survived by her two sons: Dennis (Denise) Juel of Melbourne; Stanley Juel, Melbourne; daughter Judy (Mrs. Harlan) VandeZandschulp, Sioux City; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Dale, (Aug. 8, 1982) and three sisters Bert Albers, Minnie Buttjer and Georgia Jameson.