

Byers, James Moses

d. 1-2-1939

Death of J. M. Byers, Colo Pioneer

J. M. Byers, pioneer of the Colo community, died Monday evening at 7:00 at the home of his son George at Elkhart, where he had made his home for the past 14 years.

The body was brought to Colo for funeral and interment services held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 at the Colo Methodist church, followed by burial in the Colo cemetery by the side of his wife who died many years ago.

James Moses Byers, who was 93 years of age on Nov. 9, came to this country with his parents as a lad, settled first in the Corey Grove neighborhood, lived around Elkhart and later for many years on a farm near Colo, and spent some time in State Center.

Deceased was the father of Mrs. Marie Tummel of Colo, and grandfather of Mrs. L. M. Hall of Collins.
