

Cannon, John

J. 7-28-1918

John Cannon Drowned

John Cannon third son of Douglas Cannon was drowned in the river at Iowa City Sunday morning. The young man was 24 years of age and was to have entered the service of the Army in a short time. The Cannon family lived on a farm near Colo for many years and three years ago moved to Iowa City. Doug. Cannon was in Colo and took the first train for Iowa City. One brother is on his way to France now and one brother is in Camp, one sister is a Red Cross nurse and two sisters are in the Iowa State University, one brother is farming. Burial will be in Colo. The body was not recovered for several hours.

Collins

Gazette

8-01-1918