Ruby Capron

Services were Tuesday for Ruby Capron, 70, of Melbourne, who died Thursday at Marshalltown Area Community Hospital. The Rev. Frank Everett officiated at the Pursel-Davis Chapel. The body has been donated to medical science.

She was born December 18, 1912, at Colo, the daughter of Fred C. and Bessie Worrall Cerka. She spent her early life and was graduated from high school in Colo.

Her first marriage was to Maynard G. Jackson June 21, 1930, in Cedar Rapids. He preceded her in death.

She married Dwight R. Capron March 4, 1964, in Las Vegas, NV. He survives as do two daughters, Joanne I. Christensen and Voleta L. Blessing Dickel, Melbourne; a step-daughter, Virginia Boyer, Marshalltown; two stepsons, Bob Capron, Marshalltown, and Harold (Pinky) Capron, Huntington Beach, CA; eight grandchildren; two step-grandchildren and five greatgreat-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by three brothers.

Mrs. Capron owned and operated the Pancake House in Marshalltown for a number of years. She was a member of the Central Christian Church and both the Rhodes and Marshall Rebekah Lodges.

She had lived in Rhodes, Marshalltown and at Hardy, AR, until moving to Melbourne four years ago.

A memorial fund is being established.
