

OBITUARIES

Margaret Lang, 88

Margaret Clista Carmody Lang, 88, of Ames, died Friday, December 10, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 15, at St. Cecilia Catholic Church in Ames. Burial will be in St. Patrick's Cemetery in Nevada.

Margaret was born March 29, 1916 at the family farm in Zearing, the oldest of 6 children born to John P. and Rose M.

(Roche) Carmody. She attended a one-room school through the eighth grade, attended Lincoln Township High School in the ninth and tenth grades, and then took business courses at Nevada High School where she graduated in 1933. She attended Capitol City Commercial College in Des Moines and then worked as a bookkeeper at Gibbs-Cook Equipment Co.

She was married to Richard B. (Dick) Lang on September 17, 1941. After his return from military service, they settled down to farming and raising 7 children on her parents' farm in rural Zearing.

Margaret was an active member of St. Cecilia's Catholic Church, St. Gertrude Circle, past president of the American Legion Auxiliary Post 37, a volunteer at the Mary Greeley hospitality shop, and was actively involved in forming the Story County Mental Retardation Association.

She is survived by one daughter, Judy (Howard) Reischauer of Zearing; four sons, Michael (Tammy) Lang of Boone; Patrick (Hue) Lang of San Diego; Louis of Nevada; and John (Pam) Lang of Lakeville, Minn; 17 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; three sisters, Lillian Botts of Marshalltown, Vera Andrew of Des Moines, Delores Jones of Zearing. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Richard, two daughters, Marcia (Butch) Cox of Zearing and infant daughter Mary Catherine, her sister Patricia Rodish and infant brother, John, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 14, with a rosary at 4 p.m. and American Legion Auxiliary service at 6 p.m. at Stevens Memorial Chapel in Ames.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Legion Post 37 building fund, St. Cecilia Church building fund or to the Israel Family Hospice House in Ames.

Stevens Memorial Chapel in Ames assisted with arrangements.
