Born on April 10th, 1930, in Lawton, West Virginia, she was the daughter of Hubert Grear and Julia Ann (Lee) Raines. She moved to Iowa from West Virginia to raise her family. She loved to camp, fish, being outdoors and the many cats that were at her side until the end. Her spare time was spent crocheting and making quilts for family and friends.

Left to cherish her memory are her children, Mary Jane Harmon, Cledith Marie Peerenboom, Hester Ann Fisher, Dewey Elvie (Becky) Perdue and Lawrence Edward (Jeanette) Perdue all of Marshalltown; 18 grandchildren; 33 great-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren on the way and three great-great-grandchildren. Also surviving is her brother, Arnold Lando Raines of West Virginia and several nieces and nephews in West Virginia.

In death she has rejoined her family, parents, Hubert and Julia Raines; sisters, Bonnie Jane, Frances Amaline, and Cledith Jean; brothers, George Lee, Hubert, Jr., John Robert, infant son, Arnold and husbands, Lewis Dewey Perdue, Marvin Cross and Hugh Carney.
