Steven A. Carr, Collins, Is Dead

Jan 3 - 58
Steven A. Carr, 79, of Collins, died at a Des Moines hospital about 6 p.m. Friday. He had been in failing health about three years.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. from the Collins Christian Church. The Rev. Ellis Martin will officiate. Burial is to be in Evergreen Cemetery at Collins.

Born at Collins, he had lived in the area all his life. He was a farmer and cattle-dealer.

Survivors include his wife, Zuba; a daughter, Mrs. Dave Mulcahy of Collins; two brothers, Charles of Collins and John of Makin, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. Olga Holm of Los Angeles, Calif.

The body will be at the Brouhard funeral home at Zeoring until Monday.

Stephen Angelo Carr, son and eldest child of William Wyatt and Ellen Angelo-Carr, was born on a farm five miles southwest of Collins in northwest Jasper county on September 29, 1878, and died in the Lutheran hospital in Des Moines on January 3, 1958, at the age of 79 years, three months and four days.

At an early age his parents moved to one mile east of Collins and it was in this community that he lived the remainder of his life.

He was widely known as a cattle dealer. He was ill for the past two years, being hospitalized several times.

In April, 1907, he was married to Mrs. Maude Styles, who preceded him in death in May, 1948. There is a step-daughter, Mrs Dorothy Mulcahy, of Des Moines, who with her family survive.

On January 16, 1952, he was re-married to Mrs Zuba Taylor, who survives.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Amos, who died in 1941. Other survivors are two brothers, John of Macon, Mo., and Charles of Collins; a sister, Mrs. Olga Holm, of Los Angeles, Calif., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends attended the funeral services from Des Moines, Cummings, Indianola, Newton, Kellogg, Elkhart, Maxwell, Marshalltown and Nevada.
