Man dies at scene of two-car collision

A Newton man was killed Saturday in a two-car accident at the intersection of Iowa highways 330 and 117 in northern Jasper County.

The Iowa State Patrol reported that a car driven by Christopher Carver, 34, turned into the path of a southbound minivan driven by Lori Ledger, 45, of Eldora.

A trooper said Ledger's vehicle struck Carver's on the passenger side. He died at the scene. Ledger and a passenger in the minivan, Leslie Hobson, 44, of Whitten, were taken to Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines. Both were in good condition Saturday.
