

CARVER, Edwin (Dewitt Edwin)

d. Dec. 17, 1943

Funeral Services Held at Collins for Late Edwin Carver

12-27-1943

Special to Journal.

Collins, Dec. 27—Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19, at 2:30 o'clock from the Collins Methodist church for the late Edwin D. Carver of near Collins, who passed away on Friday, Dec. 17, at the home of his son Jesse Carver, northeast of Maxwell. A ladies quartet composed of Mrs. Ronald Good, Mrs. L. M. Hall, Mrs. L. D. Holland and Mrs. C. R. Stone, with Miss Calla Wood at the piano sang "Be Still My Soul" and "Still With Thee." The Rev. Duane Manning, pastor of the local church brought a comforting message and presided at the graveside service. The floral offerings were numerous and very lovely. Miss Iva Swallowell and Mrs. O. N. Serbein assisted in their arrangement at the church and grave.

Interment was in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery at Collins. Pallbearers, nephews of the deceased were Henry Duesbury, Clarence Morrison of Collins, Floyd Carver of Maxwell, Wayne Carver, James Hall and Ray Hughes of Des Moines. The following brief obituary was read at the services:

Dewitt Edwin Carver, son of Jabez and Ellen Jackson Carver, was born Aug. 9, 1867, at Orfordville, Wis., and passed from this life Dec. 17, 1943, at the age of 76 years, 4 months and 8 days. He moved with his family to Iowa when a small boy and grew to manhood south of Collins, where he lived his entire life. He was married to Clara E. Morrison, Dec. 5, 1889 and she preceded him in death 25 years ago.

To this union three sons were born, Harlan Jefferson and Tilghnan Jabez of Collins and Jesse Edwin of Maxwell.

He is survived by the sons, six

Nevada Evening
Journal

Edd Carver Dies Early Today After Few Days Illness

1943

Maxwell, Dec. 17—D. E. Carver, familiarly known as Ed Carver, longtime farmer of five miles southwest of Collins, died at 5 o'clock this morning, at the home of his son Jesse Carver, five miles northeast of Maxwell, after several weeks' illness.

He had been a widower for a number of years and leaves sons Harlan, and Tillman of the Collins neighborhood and Jesse of near Maxwell; 6 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Cooper Funeral chapel at Maxwell, where it will be until time for the funeral rites which will be held Sunday at 2 p. m., at the Collins Methodist church, with Rev. Manning in charge.

Burial will be in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery at Collins.