Gola T. Carver

Sept. 28, 1920, to June 30, 1992

Gola T.

Carver, 71, of Ames died at her home of cancer.

She was born to John S. and Till Jane (Fuller) Mullihan at Collins. She lived in Collins until 1973, and then in Ankeny until 1992. She had recently moved to Ames. On Sept. 29, 1945, she married Lowell Carver at Collins. She worked as an accountant for 37 years at the Peerless Supply Co. in Des Moines. She retired in 1989.

She served in the U.S. Navy Waves from 1942 to 1945. She was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church, IO-WA-Vets Chapter #84 of Waves National and the Collins American Legion and Auxiliary. She was a charter member of the Iowa Polka Club and the Bid-and-Bye Bridge Club.

Survivors include a son, Gordon Carver of Ames; a daughter, Barbara Holder of Webster City; a sister, Mildred Welty of Osceola; several nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one sister.

Services were held July 3 at the Collins United Methodist Church, Collins, with the Rev. Penny Hansel and the Rev. Earl Evans officiating. Burial and military graveside services were at the Evergreen Cemetery, Collins. The IO-WA-Vets Chapter #84 Waves National and the Collins American Legion Post #81 were in charge of the service. A memorial fund has been established for the Ames Homeward Hospice. Chet Ryan Mortuary, Nevada, was in charge of arrangements.
