

Mrs. Cheville, Rhodes, Dies

May 14, 1984

Lucille Cheville, 76, Rhodes, died Wednesday at Mary Greeley Hospital in Ames. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Rhodes United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Eden Cemetery at Rhodes.

Lucille Harriet Kollman was born Oct. 3, 1907, in Lime Springs, the daughter of William and Perle Johnson Kollman. She moved to Westgate at a young age.

She was graduated from Maynard High School and attended Upper Iowa University at Fayette. She received her BS degree from Drake University in 1964.

She began her teaching career in Rhodes in 1926 and retired from the West Marshall School System in 1973.

She married Fred Cheville June 26, 1930, in Westgate.

Her widower survives, also two sons, Norman Cheville, Ames, and Terry Cheville, Waverly; a sister, Margaret Flory, Cedar Rapids, and six grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and an infant grandson.

Mrs. Cheville was a member of the Rhodes United Methodist Church, Delta Kappa Gamma and Marshall County Retired Teachers Association.

Friends may call at the Ryan-Davis Funeral Home in Melbourne after 7 p.m. Thursday.