VIRGINIA CHITTENDEN

Des Moines

Virginia Chittenden, 86, of the 3800 block of Grand Avenue died of a heart ailment Saturday at Mill Pond Retirement Center in Ankeny. Services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Our Lady's Immaculate Heart Catholic Church in Ankeny, of which she was a member. Burial will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Lincoln Memorial Park Cemetery in Lincoln, Neb.

Mrs. Chittenden was born in Lincoln, Neb., and had lived in Ankeny and Collins before moving to Des Moines three years ago. She was a homemaker and a member of American Legion Auxiliary. She enjoyed needlepoint.

She is survived by five daughters, Jane Bourgeois of Iowa City, Judy Chittenden of Ankeny, Jean Marten of Montecito, Calif., Joan Cummins of Collins and Kathleen Chittenden of Fort Worth, Texas; a son, Robert of Mitchellville; two sisters, Theoda Madden of Massachusetts and Kathleen Daly of California; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Emsley.

Friends may call from 4 to 6 p.m. today at the church, where a wake service will be held at 5 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to her church or Collins Library in Collins. Ankeny Funeral Home in Ankeny is handling arrangements.
