

Saying good-bye to old friends in 2001

2001 Deaths

Christensen Pearl 2001 09 07

91

Formerly of Clemons, IA

b. Apr 28, 1910

d. Indianola, IA Sept 7, 2001

Times-Republican
Obituaries

Marshalltown, Marshall Co., IOWA

Saturday, September 8, 2001

Pearl Christensen, 91

DES MOINES — Pearl Christensen, 91, of 707 Robin Glen, Indianola, former long-time Clemons resident, died peacefully at 3:15 a.m. Friday, Sept. 7, at the Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Christensen

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday, Sept. 10, at the Clemons United Church of Christ with Rev. David Lewis officiating. Burial will be in the Clemons Cemetery. Friends may call at the Estel-Perrin-Avey Funeral Home in Marshalltown after 6 p.m. on Sunday evening. Her family will be present from 6 to 8 p.m. to receive friends. Memorials may be directed to the Clemons United Church of Christ.

Born Claudia Pearl Davis on April 28, 1910, in East Bend, N.C., she was the daughter of Thomas W. and Mary Hobson Davis. Her family moved to Iowa when she was five years of age. She graduated from the Clemons High School and later from the Central Iowa Business College in Marshalltown.

On Feb. 10, 1934, she was united in marriage to Harold L. Christensen at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. They made their home in Stratford and Malcom before moving to Clemons in 1951 when they purchased the Clemons Grain and Supply until retiring in 1972. After this time they wintered in Mission, Texas.

Mrs. Christensen was a member of the Clemons United Church of Christ and the Women's fellowship of the church.

Left to mourn her loss are her daughter Sharon (Mrs. Sid) Winchell of Atlantic, her son Marvin (Dorothy) Christensen of Clemons, eight grandchildren: Christopher (Debbie) Brown of Waukeg, Rex Christensen of Clemons, Eric (Jennifer) Brown