

CLEVERLEY, ORVILLE W.
d. 7-19-95

Services held for Orville W. Cleverley, 97

Orville W. Cleverley, 97, of rural Mingo died Wednesday, July 19, at Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames of heart failure.

Services were held at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, July 22, at Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in Newton. Rev. Robert Hinshaw of Ashton Chapel officiated.

Burial was in the Peoria Cemetery near Maxwell.

Obituary

Orville Cleverley was born June 13, 1898 at Collins to Frank E. and Cora Inez (Maxwell) Cleverley. He was a graduate of the Harsh Country School. He was united in marriage to Zola A. Trout on March 27, 1920 near Newton. He was a retired farmer and past member of the Mingo Telephone Board and Ashton Country School Board. He lived on his farm near Mingo for 65 years and had lived near Collins for 32 years prior to moving to the farm.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Zola, on Jan. 14, 1994; one brother, Charles Cleverley; and a sister, Agnes Freeman.

Survivors include a son, John W. Cleverley, Sr. and his wife Ione of Mingo; three grandchildren, John W. Cleverley, Jr. of Cambridge, Larry D. Cleverley of New York City, and Mrs. Rick (Ellen) Rhoads of Collins; five great-grandchildren, Bill Cleverley of Sioux Falls, SD, Lori Cleverley of Cambridge, and Kyle Rhoads, Kent Rhoads and Kari Rhoads, all of Collins; and a sister, Ethel Robertson, of Maxwell.

TRI COUNTY TIMES