Melvin Casey Cleverley

Born: August 02, 1929

Died: September 19, 2004

Services will be held at: 1:30 P.M. on Wednesday, September 22, 2004 at the Baxter Congregational United Church of Christ with Reverend Rollin Watters officiating. Burial will follow services at the Restland Cemetery in Baxter.

Visitation times are: 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday, September 21, at the Boyd-Davis Funeral home where his family will be present to greet friends. Memorial contributions may be directed in his name to the Hospice of Jasper County or the Taylor House of Des Moines.

Casey was born August 2, 1929 in Eldora, Iowa the son of Charles E. and Grace B. (Barbee) Cleverley. A short time after his birth Casey's family moved to Baxter, Iowa. Casey was raised and educated in Baxter, where he attended the Baxter School System.

He was a life long employee of Maytag in Newton, Iowa where he was worked in both the machinery and the salvage departments. Casey retired in 1993 after 46 years of service to Maytag. He enjoyed traveling, family fishing trips, auctioneering, playing cards and shooting pool, but most of all loved to spend time with his family. Casey is survived by his wife Lorena of Indianola, his son Danny Laverne (Debbie) Cleverley of Corydon, Iowa, his daughter Sue (Byron) Kern of Norwalk, Iowa, his two sisters Amy Parsons of Newton and Betty Wright of Baxter, his brother Frank (Dolores) Cleverley of Newton, his ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Casey was preceded in death by his parents, a brother in infancy and his daughter Judy.
