

Cloud, Minta Hall 7-18 d. 1956

NATIVE OF COLLINS
DIED IN DENVER

The following is from the Denver, Colo., Post of July 18.

(Some of the older residents of Collins community may remember the deceased.)

Services for Mrs Minta H. Cloud, 79, of 1193 S. Pennsylvania St., Denver, will be at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday at the Hofmann mortuary. Burial will be in Fairmount.

Mrs Cloud died Sunday at St. Luke's hospital.

She was born Feb. 4, 1877, in Collins, Ia., and in 1890 moved with her parents to Lamar, Colo. She came to Denver in 1907 to study piano and in 1908 married Charles W. Hall here. Mr Hall died in 1936. She married William A. Cloud in 1942.

Mrs Cloud was a past Noble Grand Matron of the Rebecca Lodge No. 55 of Lamar, had been a member of the Eastern Star since 1908, served as a matron since 1921 and was a charter member of the South Gate Eastern Star 104.

Surviving is her husband.
