

Hughes, Janet R. d. 9-30-1999

Nevada
Journal

Janet Rosalee Hughes

10-7-1999

Feb. 9, 1934, to Sept. 30, 1999

Janet Rosalee Hughes, 65, of Nevada, died of liver cancer on Thursday, Sept. 30, at Story County Hospital in Nevada.

She was born Feb. 9, 1934, in Lucerne, Putnam County, Mo., to Herman and Kitty (Daugherty) Corbin. She had been a resident of Nevada for the past seven years, moving here from Newton. She retired from Ames Processed Food Inc. in 1997. She enjoyed being with family.

Survivors include a daughter, Beverly Grimm of Norfolk, Va.; a son, Chris Hughes of Knoxville; three grandchildren; three brothers, Trulin Corbin of Apache Junction, Ariz., Ralph Corbin of Nevada and Junior Corbin of Newtown, Mo.; four sisters, Hazel Pauley of Colo, Amber Drahos of Nevada, Mavis Dull of Kansas City, Kan., and Doris Whipple of Hampton; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three sisters, Lena Smith, Lucy Soddors and Twylia Bailey.

The body has been cremated and graveside memorial services were held Tuesday, Oct. 5, at the Murphy Cemetery in rural Nevada with Chaplain David Burling officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society. Chet Ryan Mortuary, Nevada, handled arrangements.