

Father of Mrs. Dewey Kern Died Saturday Night

Fred A. Corey, father of Mrs. Dewey of Collins, died at his home at Fort Dodge at about midnight Saturday.

Mrs. Kern had been at her father's bedside for some time.

Funeral services were held at Fort Dodge Wednesday, and besides Mr. and Mrs. Kern the following from this community were in attendance: Mrs. C. R. Stone, Mrs. G. A. Tilton, Mrs. L. F. Richardson, Mrs. L. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sokol, and Mrs. A. F. Heinrich of Maxwell.

Attended Funeral At Fort Dodge

1942

Collins, April 11—Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sokol, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fish, Mrs. C. R. Stone, Mrs. L. F. Richardson, Mrs. L. M. Hall, Mrs. Eva Tilton and Mrs. Arlow Heinrich of Maxwell attended the funeral of Fred Corey at Fort Dodge Wednesday. Mr. Corey is the father of Mrs. Dewey Kern. He passed away Saturday night after a long illness. Mr. Kern had been with his wife in Fort Dodge for the past three days.