DeWayne (Red) Craven

Oct. 4, 1946 - May 4, 2005

DeWayne (Red) Craven, 58, of Webster City, died Wednesday, May 4, 2005, following a workplace accident. Funeral services were Saturday, May 7, at Faith United Methodist Church in Webster City with the Rev. Brian Carter officiating. Burial was in the Graceland Cemetery in Webster City. Graveside military rites were conducted by American Legion Post #191.

DeWayne Keith Craven was born Oct. 4, 1946, in Boone, the son of Charles and Audrey Bennett Craven. He graduated from South Hamilton High School in 1965. During the Vietnam War, he served with the U.S. Army in a transportation company. He served one year in Vietnam. Following his discharge, he worked at Ruan Lumber and also farmed with his father-in-law, Floyd Ingraham. On March 14, 1971, he married Colleen Mae Ingraham at Webster City. The couple resided in rural Webster City. He had been employed at Webster City Custom Meats for the past 20 years.

DeWayne is survived by his wife, Colleen; sons, Ken C. Craven of Woolstock and Brian K. Craven of Webster City; his mother, Audrey Craven of Nevada; sister and brother-in-law, Janice and Dean Monson of Nevada; brothers and sisters-in-law, Melvin and Judy Craven of Nevada, Robert and Mary Craven of Badger, and Dennis and Bobbie Craven of Iowa City; mother-in-law, Glenna Ingraham of Webster City; sister-in-law and her husband, Carolyn and Eldon Arends of Jewell; brother-in-law and his wife, Dale and Connie Ingraham of Webster City; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father; his father-in-law; and a niece, Traci Gayle Ingraham.

DeWayne always enjoyed tinkering and building at his home with the help of his sons. He also enjoyed camping and working with horses.
