

Nevada Journal
19 June 2002

Rosalie F. Enfield
June 19, 2002

March 29, 1954, to June 13, 2002

Rosalie F. Enfield, 48, of Collins, died of cancer Thursday, June 13, at the Israel Family Hospice House in Ames.

She was born March 29, 1954, at Osage, to Henry and Alfrieda (Pagel) Crooks. She was a 1972 graduate of Nevada High School and attended Iowa State University, where she majored in journalism. She married Calvin Enfield on June 18, 1988, in Collins. She worked as an administrative assistant in the engineering department at Iowa State University. Prior to working at Iowa State, she worked for Iowa Hospital Association for a number of years. She was baptized at Immanuel Lutheran Church at St. Ansgar on Easter Sunday, 1954, and was a member of the Collins United Methodist Church, where she had taught Sunday school. She enjoyed cross-stitching, the Jumble puzzle, music and being a soccer mom.

Survivors include her husband, Calvin of Collins; three sons, Dan of Tempe, Ariz., Nicholas and Andrew, both of home in Collins; one daughter, Emily Enfield of Urbandale; her mother, Alfrieda Crooks of Dows; two brothers, Adrian Crooks of Boone and Randy Crooks of Ames; six sisters, Carolyn Loftaas of Kensett, Glenita Brown of Mason City, Marjorie Tuthill of Kensett, Cynthia Mallette of Boone, Mary Casterton of Mason City and Ramona Parkin of Norwalk; and her mother-in-law, Betty Enfield of Maxwell.

Her father, Henry Crooks, and father-in-law, Earl Enfield, preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Collins United Methodist Church with the Rev. Don Carlson officiating. Burial was at the Brethren Cemetery south of Maxwell. Memorials may be made to the Collins United Methodist Church and/or the Israel Family Hospice House. The Bacon Funeral Home, Maxwell, handled arrangements.

©Nevada Journal 2002