

Crosby, Edgar

d. 8-14-1937

FORMER COLLINS MAN DIED IN CALIFORNIA

Story county relatives have received word of the death at Fresno, Calif., on Saturday, of Edgar A. Crosby, for many years a resident of Story county, and at one time a rural mail carrier out of Collins.

Mr. Crosby is survived by two sons, Herbert and Floyd, and a granddaughter, Patsy Ann Crosby. Mr. Crosby was a half-brother of Ben Phares of Collins, Mrs. Laura Dolph of Nevada and David, Mary and Minnie Phares of New Albany township.

He came to Story county, as a small boy with his mother and step-father, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phares, where he grew to young manhood. He organized the first mail route out of Collins, which he carried for a number of years before going to New Mexico and then on to Pasadena and later Fresno, Calif.

EDGAR CROSBY

Story county relatives have received advice of the death at Fresno, Calif., on Saturday, of Edgar A. Crosby, for many years a resident of Story county and one-time rural mail carrier out of Collins.

Mr. Crosby is survived by two sons, Herbert and Floyd, and a granddaughter, Patsy Ann Crosby. Mr. Crosby was a half-brother of Mrs. Laura Dolph of Nevada and David, Mary and Minnie Phares of New Albany township.

He came to Story county when a small boy with his mother and step-father, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phares, where he grew to young manhood and organized the first mail route out of Collins, which he carried for a number of years before going to New Mexico and then on out to Pasadena, and later Fresno, Calif.

Collins

Garrett

8-19-1937