

Former Area Teacher Dies In Red Oak

Miss Chloris Crouse, 106 $\frac{3}{4}$ N. 1st St., has received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carl Crouse, 75, of Red Oak on Friday night.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Monday at the United Methodist Church in Red Oak with burial at Mitchellville.

Mrs. Crouse, the former Bess Pritchard, taught school in Albion before her marriage. Surviving in addition to the widower are three children, Verl of Nevada, Clark of Muscatine and Sarah Beth of Rochester, N. Y.