

Dannen Rites Wednesday At Rhodes

RHODES — George Dannen, operator of a Rhodes service station since 1954, died Monday, Aug. 23 at Veterans Hospital in Des Moines.

Services were performed Wednesday, Aug. 25 at the Rhodes Methodist Church by the Rev. Lloyd Musser. Burial was in Eden Cemetery with military rites by the Rhodes American Legion Post 456.

Pallbearers were Lonnie Vandekamp, Rick Thill, Dan Tuttle, Jack Gray, Tom Borton and Phillip Buck.

Mr. Dannen was born in Marshall County Dec. 3, 1930 to John and Freida Krausman Dannen. He served in the U.S. Army and farmed in Marshall County. He was a member of the Rhodes Fire Department, served on the city council and belonged to the American Legion.

Surviving are six brothers and two sisters: Jake, Leonard, Jerry and Duane Dannen of Rhodes, Max of Marshalltown, Lloyd of Missouri Valley, Mrs. Robert (Marjorie) Stewart of Gilman and Mrs. Lloyd (Joan) Varnum of Colorado Springs. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister.

A memorial has been established

SERVICES FROM
United Methodist Church
Rhodes, Iowa

August 25, 1976
1:30 P. M.

CLERGY
Rev. Lloyd Musser

ORGANIST
Mrs. Michael McDowell

SOLOIST
Mr. Ray Long

SELECTIONS
"How Great Thou Art"
"In the Garden"

IN MEMORY OF
GEORGE DANNEN

BORN
December 3, 1930
Marshall County, Iowa

DIED
August 23, 1976
Des Moines, Iowa

ARRANGEMENTS BY
Boyd-Nickell Funeral Home
Baxter, Iowa

PALLBEARERS
Lonnie Vandekamp
Rick Thill
Dan Tuttle
Jack Gray
Tom Borton
Phillip Buck

INTERMENT
Eden Cemetery
Rhodes, Iowa

FLAG CEREMONY AT
Grave by Rhodes
American Legion Post No. 456