Obituary of Mrs. Leona Davies.

Bertha Leona, daughter of Charles and Phoebe Mead was born in Story County, Iowa, January 14, 1882. Departed this life Dec. 6, 1915, age 33 years, 10 months and 22 days. She was united in marriage to Marion Boydston Oct. 18, 1905. He was called from this earth Jan. 24, 1912. Also father and two sisters preceded her to the great beyond. On Oct. 31, 1914 she was married to L. E. Davies, of this city. She was born and grew to womanhood in this vicinity and will be sadly missed by all. She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, mother and two brothers Leroy and Charles of Collins, Ia. and two sisters Minnie Hanson of Collins and Etna M. Jones of Norman, Oklahoma, besides uncles, aunts and cousins and other relatives and a host of friends. When but a girl she was converted and joined the Methodist Protestant Church and has ever been a faithful member, taking an active part in the church, Sunday School and prayer meeting, always ready to do whatever she could to aid her church. Leona was a good girl and a kind, loving wife. While she was not permitted to live very long in her beautiful home, she was dutiful, cheerful and happy at all times. But the angel death came and called this dear one from our midst.

The above obituary was read by the presiding minister, Rev. Frank Butterfield, at the funeral exercises which were held at the home last Thursday afternoon, Dec. 9th. The house was filled with relatives and friends of the deceased. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Rev. Butterfield preached an eloquent and sympathetic sermon, giving comfort to the bereaved ones. The choir was composed of lady friends of Mrs. Davies, viz: Mesdames Alma Harsh, Clara Serbein, Eva Carver, Pearl Harrington, and Misses Pearl and Bessie Carver. Miss Ethel Carver accompanied on the piano.

The pall bearers were M. H. Bidick, G. F. Holland, O. B. Patterson, Chas. A. Sanders, O. Serbein, W. H. Thompson. The interment was at Evergreen Cemetery.
