

OBITUARIES

Edwin Davis, 86

Edwin R. Davis, 86, Des Moines, died of a kidney ailment recently at Hospice Kavanagh House. Services were held at the Southtown Funeral Home. The body was donated to the Des Moines University - Osteopathic Medial Center following services. Cremation will be at a later date.

Mr. Davis has lived in Des Moines most of his life. He was a retired distribution manager with Armstrong Tire and Rubber Co., a Marine veteran of World War II and a member of Fort Des Moines United Methodist Church and Southgate Masonic Lodge Chapter 657. He was a past president of the Central Iowa Chapter of the American Production, Inventory and Control Society.

Mr. Davis was previously a teacher and coach in the Melbourne School and the family made their home in Melbourne for some years.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia "Jean"; a son Dennis of Burnsville, MN; a daughter, Debra Rhea of Papillion, NE; a sister Marilyn Ahlberg of Des Moines; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the scholarship fund of his Masonic Lodge, Bidwell Riverside Center or Hospice Kavanagh House.