

DAWSON, Rev. W.T.

d. 25 July 1935

REV. W. T. DAWSON

Rev. W. T. Dawson, 73, of Minneapolis, was buried in Evergreen cemetery at Collins, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Dawson died on Friday, following a two weeks' illness after an operation for colon trouble at a hospital in that city. He was well known to Collins people having made his home there as a young man and later as pastor of the U. B. churches at Dalton and Willow Creek, leaving these charges for one at the Castle Memorial church in Des Moines.

He was married Dec. 5, 1882, to Elvira L. Evans, who passed away March 24, 1892. To this union four sons were born. He is survived by his wife of a later marriage, his sons Eddy Eugene of Cheyenne, Wyo., John of Ogden, Iowa, George of St. Paul, Ray of Des Moines, also a step-daughter living in California. A sister Mrs. Arrabelle Dodd of Michigan and a brother Robert Dawson of Arkansas also survive him. He had made his home for a number of years in California coming back to Iowa four year ago.
